MEMPHIS APPEAL

Wednesday, April 18, 1866.

Office—No. 13 Madison Street.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. G. W. Treacher is our attorney, agent to defend the interests of the Appeal, and to prosecute and defend for the State in the Trials of the Rebels.

We beseech it before the King, attorney and counselor of our parents and friends, and the people of the South, to exert their power to promote the object of his mission.

MURKIN, CRAGHORN.—We have been unable to satisfy the demand for the services of Mr. Ford's address on Confederate Masonic Lodge. We shall republish it in the weekly, which will be issued to-morrow, and will also publish a half sheet containing the oration, so that all may be prepared to copy it down the day of the trial, and copy or wrap ready for mailing can be obtained at our counter.

The Federal meeting of to-night, at City Hall, we are advised, will be addressed by Col. Clancy and other well-known speakers.

THE GAMBLING CASE.—Now awaiting examination by Esquire J. C. Crighton, who is to preside at the instance of the defendant's counsel, until to-day at 11 o'clock.

TELEGRAMS.—The following telegrams remain unsealed for the telegraph office: D. Wallace, J. W. & O. Doord, Captain Capt. F. M. Stokoe, George Havens, A. L. Legay.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to Tom White, clerk of the steamer Adam Jacob, for up river papers. Also Ruth Bowen, at Alcock & Co.'s, for the latest Southern and Cincinnati Journal.

CASE CONTINUED.—Bejamin F. Caswell, Harry Campbell charged with firing a pistol at a lady, waived a preliminary examination, and gave bonds in the sum of $200 to answer the charge before the Criminal Court.

THE EXECUTION CASE.—Was granted to the condemned individual, at the instance of the defense, two days ago.

ON MOTION OF ALDERMAN TOWNSEND.—It was finally decided to Mr. Burke of the Fifth Ward, to nominate candidates Mr. Burke nominated Messrs. Townsend, Baldwin and Ewing.

On the first ballot, Mr. O'Donnell received 1,000 votes, Mr. Towns 1,000, and Ewing 200; no motion; no election.

ON MOTION OF ALDERMAN TOWNSEND.—It was decided to forward and took the usual ballot.

THE SUPREME COURT.—An important case, lately determined, involved the question whether the act of Congress, which imposed a fine of $500 for every offense against the law of neutrality, was valid.

A report from Chief of Police of action to abate certain nuisances of which complaint had been made.

COMMITTEE OF IMPROVEMENT.—Committee to S— was re-elected and allowed to sit.

Reports from Police Committee.

Report from Finance Committee amounting to $80,36. Adopted.

Report of City Attorney being allowed $500 monthly rent, report of Committee Adverse. Adopted.

Report of Committee on Paper, Advertising, and Stationery amounting to $100. Adopted.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—We are informed that the track will be laid to Auction street by the end of this week, and the clothing trade will go out on the 2nd of May. The track will be laid to Auction street, to Fifth street, and up that thoroughfare ready to close on Church. It is also designed to lay tracks on Poplar, Jefferson and Beale streets in the order in which they are named.

A. HANSON PRESENT.—We attended the trials of the Rev. J. V. Estelle, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and his wife, who had been charged with $400 worth of an absent gold watch, a cost of two hundred and fifty dollars, and we desire to congratulate the reverend father on this evidence of the esteem and love with which he has, during the comparatively short time he has been here, inspired so many of his congregation.

CHARLES BROWN.—A very darkly tanned citizen of African descent, was arrested yesterday under a warrant issued by Esquire J. C. Crighton, on a charge of having broken into the shop of a colored negro and taken away a lot of boots and shoes; for which exploit his master brought out the absent colored warrant, and placed Charles in durance ville. The case will be referred to the grand jury to decide what to do with him.

ARMED BY THE POLICE.—On Monday evening and yesterday the police arrested twenty-two persons, of whom nineteen were whites and three colored. Of those four were drunk, three carried concealed weapons, two were fighting and the remainder, unnamed, were generally revoltingly profane.

After dinner Johnson offered a resolution affirming that until the city is free from debt, or its finance in a better condition than at present, no more debts be created than may be absolutely necessary for the support of the public service and the welfare of the city.
